

What is the AUBURN BEAUTIFICATION COUNCIL?

AUBURN BEAUTIFICATION COUNCIL

The Auburn Beautification Council is a non-profit, volunteer organization designed to promote the beautification of the city of Auburn, Alabama, and to work collaboratively with organizations to promote a more beautiful place in which to live, work, visit, and conduct business.

OUR PROJECTS

- Own and maintain Auburn's downtown lamppost baskets
- Coordinate and sponsor the Auburn Floral Trail each spring
- Conduct seasonal plant sales
- Bestow awards and publicize winners in area media and through social media
- Maintain the Rouse Corley Garden in Kiesel Park
- Maintain the historic Nunn-Winston House gardens at Kiesel Park

The Auburn Beautification Council has a number of projects and initiatives throughout the community designed to meet their mission of beautification. Volunteers are invited to participate in the activity of their choice.
